Who can enrol and vote?

It is compulsory for all eligible Australian citizens 18 years and over to enrol to vote. You are eligible to enrol and vote if you:

- are an Australian citizen, or a British subject who was enrolled on 25 January 1984*
- are 18 years or older, and
- have lived at your address which is your principal place of residence for at least one month.

*For Victorian elections only, you are eligible to enrol and vote if you were a British subject enrolled between 26 October 1983 and 25 January 1984 inclusive.

You can enrol at 16 years of age for federal purposes and at 17 years for State purposes, but cannot vote until you are 18.

^ To enrol on the Commonwealth electoral roll, the person confirming your identity must be on the Commonwealth electoral roll.

The AEC will provide confirmation that your enrolment form has been processed within three weeks of receiving your form and may contact you if we need additional information.

Special enrolment

Special category enrolment forms are available if you:

- are temporarily overseas
- cannot attend a polling place on election day
- believe that having your address shown on a publicly available roll may endanger your safety or that of your family
- have no fixed address
- are in prison
- are physically incapable of signing your name
- are working in Antarctica.

Who has access to your enrolment information?

The Commonwealth of Australia

The Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) is authorised under the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (CEA) to collect and verify the information you have been asked to complete on this form. The information provided will assist the AEC to maintain electoral rolls.

The AEC may disclose electoral information to persons or organisations in accordance with the CEA. This may include:

- access to the publicly available electoral roll (containing names and addresses) which may be inspected at electoral offices
- state and territory electoral authorities
- Members of Parliament, Senators, registered political parties, and candidates for the House of Representatives
- approved medical research and public health screening programs
- any agencies, persons or organisations prescribed in the Electoral and Referendum Regulations 1940.

The State of Victoria

The Victorian Electoral Commission (VEC) is authorised under the Electoral Act 2002 (Vic) to collect and verify the information you have been asked to complete on this form. The information provided will assist the VEC to maintain the Register of Electors and to prepare electoral rolls for Victorian State and local government elections.

You can apply for access to the information that the VEC holds about you by contacting the VEC. Please view the privacy information at vec.vic.gov.au/PrivacyAtTheVEC.html

Electoral rolls may be inspected at the office of the VEC during business hours. Address details for silent electors will be withheld from publication. The VEC may disclose electoral information to others in accordance with Victorian law. This may include:

- the AEC, other state government bodies (including law enforcement), and local councils
- Members of Parliament, registered political parties and candidates for Victorian State and local government elections
- persons or organisations that apply, and are approved, to access enrolment information for a permitted purpose, which is determined by the VEC in consultation with the Office of the Victorian Information Commissioner as a purpose that justifies the disclosure. The current list of persons or organisations in this category is published at vec.vic.gov.au
